GNLF's Goal

GNLF is an organization run by university students in Tokyo. Our goal is to create a platform where Global Leaders grow.

We think that Global Leaders are people who can

In order to achieve our goal, we hold a conference called the Global Next Leaders Forum annually.

About the Forum

GNLF is a ten-day international conference in which participants from the world discuss abstract matters. This forum is the core activity of our organization.

Goal

To provide participants with experiences that will motivate them to become global leaders.

Date

From February 25, 2023 to March 6, 2023.

Participants

40 university students and professors from about 10 countries and regions are expected to participate.

Where

The event will be held on-site in Tokyo.

Language

The whole conference will be proceeded in English.

Makeup of the Forum

The forum consists of roughly three parts.

Session

Discussion between participants based on experts' lecture.

Cultural party

Deepen friendship by introducing their homeland's culture to each other.

Sightseeing

Deepen understanding of the topic by visiting places related to the theme.
